The internal purpose of this publication is to provide a Clearing House for secondary classical teachers in New York and vicinity or anywhere else; to afford an opportunity to younger classical scholars anywhere for the publication of their more modest endeavors along the line of original work, which might not otherwise see the light; to stimulate the teaching and quicken the student activity in the classical work in the high schools of Greater New York. The external purpose is to establish one or more College-entrance-scholarships for the most successful graduates from high schools in New York City, to be awarded on a competitive examination. The proceeds over and above expenses will be devoted to a scholarship fund. The labor involved is a labor of love.

SOMETHING DEFINITE

Vagueness of aim is responsible for much poor work in Latin. With this in mind, an experienced teacher has made us four little exercise books, one for each of the first four books of the Gallic War. Their aim is to present to the pupil, in the form of a definite lesson, just those matters which may most usefully occupy his preparation period. There are questions, and blanks for written answers. The author is Mr. A. L. Doty, of DeWitt Clinton High School. They can be used with any Cæsar. Next time we shall have a word to say about our own Cæsar—something that will interest those who are using the book. For others we will not answer.

Book I, 25 cents. Books II, III, IV, 20 cents each.
